

WHAT GREAT TEACHERS DO DIFFERENTLY

Terre Haute, IN
New College of Education
in University Hall
June 8-10, 2010
8:30am – 4pm; Room Here

Drawing from his bestselling book and national seminars, Dr. Todd Whitaker will focus on the beliefs, behaviors, attitudes, and interactions that set great teachers apart. Topics covered among others include:

- How to set high expectations and get students to deliver
- What great teachers do when students misbehave
- How great teachers filter information differently than others
- Ways that great teachers approach high stakes testing

$225 or $200 if 3 or more from one district

Additional information is available: <http://coe.indstate.edu/elaf/>

Check payable to Indiana State University

Registration Deadline: June 1

Getting There: ISU Map: <http://www.indstate.edu/news/directions.html>
(University Hall is at 8th & Chestnut; Parking Garage: 8th & Cherry)

3 graduate credits for license renewal available for $375

15 CRUs or 3 credits also available

New insights for these tough
economic times

Indiana State University

More. From day one.